NARRATIVE:

Renee Smith has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. Her convictions include battery against a police officer, arson, battery by a prisoner, exhibiting a deadly weapon, possession and sales of cocaine, transport and sales of narcotic controlled substances, sales of marijuana, vandalism and failing to report. She has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for possession and sales of cocaine. Smith was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 25, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Smith qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for sales of marijuana is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
